Mimi teaches power yoga for a hip urban studio. Even though she has a dream job and is surrounded by great people her life is going nowhere fast; her boyfriend is a total zero, she is on the down slope to forty, she spends way too much time in her head and she has no idea what she wants to be when she grows up. After floating around for a decade in a fog of down dog, marijuana smoke and red wine she decides her life needs a do-over; she ditches her old boyfriend, gets a new man and then totally destroys her chance at life-long love by getting a bad boob job. Death by YOGA is a modern, funny, sexy, sincere journey from waste-case to wonderful. In BODY, Mimi falls flat on her face and has to face the consequences of no choices, bad choices and that she might have to get completely lost in life to figure out where she is going.
