The Killing of Osama Bin Laden Seymour M. Hersh

In 2011, a group of Navy SEALs stormed an enclosure in the Pakistani city of Abbotabad and killed Osama Bin Laden, the man the United States had been chasing since before the devastating attacks of 9/11. The news did much to boost Obama's first term and played a major part in his re-election victory in the following year. Except the story of that night that was presented to the world was a lie, and the evidence of what actually went on has been covered up.

At the same time, the true story of the US's involvement in the Syrian civil wars has been conducted behind a diplomatic curtain. The White House has turned a blind eye to Turkey's involvement in stirring up the conflict. Meanwhile, open brutality and ruthless subterfuge—such as the Sarin gas attack on Damascus—has been allowed to go on unpunished. As master investigative journalist Seymour Hersh shows in this explosive book, this was just one of many lies that the world's leaders now tell us with seeming impunity. How far do these lies go? And what are their purpose?
