Me and my star: A collection of children christmas poems and short stories Niger Alford

Jesus loves the little children. He loves all the little children of the world. Red and yellow black and white they are precious in his sight. We know this is true, but did you ever consider that the little children love Jesus too. Well you will love this book. The book shares a child point of view of their love for Jesus. Children have the child like faith in God. This is a pure form of a powerful faith. The child in the book shares poems from there heart. Me and my star displays the love a child has for their star who is the lord Jesus. Great poems for Christmas plays and recitals.
