A Prophet Prepares: Theater in the Book of Ezekiel Jesse Keen

The theater is one of the oldest artforms that exists. This book argues that it is even older than ancient Greece and instead takes it all the way back to the Biblical Era. This unique book was written as a thesis for a biblical studies program by an author who also has worked and trained as a professional actor. Delve into the unique view provided by the combination of these two contrasting but not mutually exclusive world views.
