Eve of Destruction L.C. Candar

In a crumbling carcass of a city, a girl without memories joins a soldier with way too many in a desperate bid to survive the night. But there's a secret she can't let him know, a secret she can't let herself know...

The apocalypse arrived in a form nobody expected. Silent. Alien. Deadly. Apex predators designed to hunt down and possess have emerged from the pained earth to eliminate everything human. With no declaration, no conditions, no chance for surrender, a total war on the human race has begun and millions of casualties have dyed the world bloody red. We never stood a chance. Not against them.

With all sources of water poisoned, a biological weapon released to cleanse the streets, and acid rain streaking from the sky, what chance do a pair of refugees stand against hordes of tireless invaders who came for the thing most precious - human minds to destroy and able bodies to reap?

The world has gone mad, and from its twisting insides, the horsemen of the apocalypse came crawling with the screeching song of a wicked cicada. But there was one thing they underestimated: the unbreakable will of two humans stubbornly refusing to curl up and die.
