Love Letters: Ode to Her Aaron Miller

They say in a lifetime a man is ascribed a maximum of three great women, however poet Aaron Miller, a young, handsome and enigmatic individual is the exception to that rule. On his sojourn in life he has been fortuitous to have had the company, attention, attraction and hearts of a diverse group of amazing women who have shaped his outlook and authored his being. In spite of this, most of his life he has been guarded, using sarcasm and cynicism as his armor.

Though the walls he built grew tall they have been breached even though seldom and he has allowed a chosen few in. Inside his mysterious and alluring world he has exchanged with them thrills, memories, hope, friendship, affection and passion. This is encapsulated in a series of letters he has penned over time which details love, unbridled ecstasy, desire, longing and heartbreak. However, there is a seedy obscure part of him that remains impregnable and unexplored that threatens to consume him. Will the relationship with the most recent great woman he has interacted with penetrate his shield and steal his heart or will it push him further into isolation?
