Not illustrated. 1877 edition. Excerpt: ... CHAPTER XTv INSIDE VIEW OP POLYGAMY AND THE DOCTRINE OP "SEALING. J TN THE Winter of 1845 meetings were held all over the city LJ- of Nauvoo, and the spirit of Elijah was taught in the different families as a foundation to the order of celestial marriage, as well as the law of adoption. Many families entered into covenants with each other--the man to stand by his wife and the woman to cleave unto her husband, and the children to be adopted to the parents._J I was one of those who entered into covenants to stand by my family, to cleave to them through time and eternity. I am proud to Bm I have kept my obligations sacred and inviolate to this day. Others refused to enter into these obligations, but agreed to separate from each other, dividing their substance, and mutually dissolving their former relations on friendly terms. Some have mutually agreed to exchange wives and have been sealed to each other as husband and wife by virtue and authority of the holy priesthoodr"] One of Brigliam's brothers, Lorenzo Young, now a bishop, made an exchange of wives with Mr. Decker, the father of the Mr. Decker who now has an interest in the cars running to York. They both seemed happy in the exchange of wives. (All are considered aliens to the commonwealth of Israel until adopted into the kingdom by baptism, and their children born unto them before the baptism of the parents are to be adopted to the parents, and become heirs to the kingdom through the law of adoption. But the children that are born to pareute after the baptism of the parents are legal heirs to the kingdom. J L,This doctrine extends much further. All persons are required to be adopted to some of the leading men of the Church. In this, however, they have the right of choice, thus forming...
