Perspectives in Entrepreneurship: A Critical Approach

Perspectives in Entrepreneurship: A Critical Approach

This text seeks to explain the emergence and development of entrepreneurship and to make students aware of different perspectives taken within the discipline. It is critical in its approach, expounding the view that contrasting positions can be taken in considering certain instances, and aiming to add to the academic body of knowledge in this still emerging field -- but in a student friendly fashion. The book is written by acknowledged experts and high profile academics. It will tend to appeal to more advanced students and lecturers within the subject area.
