Kelly Morris is forced to travel to the Washington wilderness to report of the wild animal attacking the locals. She hates the assignment, but she needs this to keep her job at her Seattle newspaper. Once there, she meets the alluring and overly sexy Alex Shepard, who warns her that there is more than meets the eye in this small town. She's too stubborn to heed his warning, and soon she finds herself in a tense situation, learning more than she'd like to about the local wild life.
