If you have kids, friends, and/or pets, work a day job, or got an A+ in Procrastination 101

you will benefit from the tools Jeanette Levellie has learned and used to write and publish hundreds of columns, stories, articles, and three books in her spare time. Unlike other time management programs, this unique approach helps you focus on your strengths and minimize your weaknesses to make the best use of your limited writing or other creative time.

Hang out with Jeanette (and her zany artist son) as they share practical strategies and creative insights on managing your time. Learn to say no with confidence, delegate with grace, and find more time to play.

Includes time management tips from:

New York Times Bestselling author Cecil Murphey

Award-winning novelist Jody Hedlund

Literary agents Diana Flegal & Linda Glaz

Freelance editor and author Diana Savage

Director of Professional Writing Department at Taylor University & author of 54 books Dennis Hensley
