The Lion Who Wanted to Love Giles Andreae

"Deep in the African heartland/Way out on the hot sunny plains,/there lived a small lion who didn't fit in/And Leo was this lion's name."

The problem with Leo was that he wanted to love everybody - even the animals he was supposed to hunt and eat. So one day his mother banished him from the pride and little Leo was left to fend for himself. How could he survive without hunting? Leo knew he couldn't kill anyone, so he helped them instead. And then the day came when Leo himself needed help - and he found he had made lots of friends who were only too pleased to come to his rescue.
