True Team: The Dayton Flyers' Run to the Elite Eight Larry Hansgen

The Dayton Flyers captivated a nation and re-energized a region with their run to the Elite Eight of the 2014 NCAA Basketball Tournament. While millions watched on TV and thousands flocked to game sites in Buffalo and Memphis, the story of the tradition of Flyer basketball emerged, as well as the unique story of this special team. Dayton's tournament run was unexpected, and the result of a well-laid plan and diligent execution. Seen through the eyes of the long-time radio play-by-play voice of the Flyers, Larry Hansgen, True Team tells the story of a group of young men and their coaches who survived adversity, overcame obstacles, and wrote their legacy upon the history of the Miami Valley region. Larry takes you through the early successes in Maui, the disastrous January, and the start of an amazing run that culminated in the NCAA tournament. Readers will learn what makes this Dayton team unique and how the success it achieved may have had more to do with what it did not do, rather than what it did.
