Cruel To Be Kind Frances Symonds

Lydia and Laura are twins growing up in the 1950's. Both are beautiful but different in looks and temperament. Lydia cannot wait to leave school and acquire all that money can buy and by any means. Laura's ambition is to be the perfect nun.

The night before Laura leaves for France to start her life as a postulant the girls decide to go to their last dance together.

There they meet the handsome army officer Max who will feature in both their lives.

Later Max introduces Lydia to his wealthy friend David Loade-Taylor of 'Hevenbroc Hall'. She plays snooker with him for a prize beyond her wildest dreams. But what are the conditions if she wins?

Is being a nun all that Laura expected and what is preventing her from becoming the perfect nun?
