I Am, therefore ... I Write. Each poem is my own personal painting with words ... what Michelangelo did with the Sistine Chapel; I have sought to do to the page of Existence with the palette of thought. To bring our hand so close to the Creator, that we become Creation at its Source ... so intimate with the Lover, that we become each other's hearts beating. When we kiss like this, deeply aware of the Moment, our Soul's tongues tickle the tenderest most vulnerable parts. Take a drink from this bowl of Light, & taste the religionlessness of belonging. You have written these words unaware, with your own heart & soul ... You have written these Love Poems to God through the ink in the blood of my veins ... make yourself at home in the pen in my palm, because everything I am or have, already belongs to you ... for I have been embraced so fully into the Beloved, that I can no longer tell the difference of where 'I' end, & 'you' begin ... & at last Pure-One, at last! The Truth of Source set me free ... for poetry is magic in the truest sense, that's why writing is called 'Spelling' because the true Poet casts Spells through the Art of Articulation, & like all incantations, the Magic really happens when spoken out loud & with intent! When you open this book, Light will pour into the eyes of your Heart, & you will feel beyond your senses the magic of each sacred-syllable bringing you one thought-prayer closer to the intimacy of God's breath, until you are the Spells themselves, being softly spoken by the One.
