After narrowly escaping the lifeless deserts of the southwest United States, Brooke Fontanne and her family must now travel through their former country as fugitives. And with the government offering a bounty on any illegals trying to sneak their way back into the country, Brooke is bound to have some company.

On the East coast, politicians on both sides of the aisle struggle to appropriate what dwindling resources are left as the drought continues its chokehold on the nation. Adding to the political time bomb is a war with Mexico that could cripple what resources remain.

With her journey to North Carolina almost complete Brooke must outwit the authorities and a tenacious bounty hunter before she is safe. James Hunt, author of the bestselling "Broken Lines" series which accumulated over 150 5-Star reviews on Amazon, brings you the final installment of his follow-up hit series: Exiled.
