A story inspired by true events. Nicky, a pushy young radio presenter with a dark past, lands her first big job on a struggling provincial radio station in Peterborough, Cambridgeshire. Marc, a world-weary advertising man, takes pity when no-one responds to her pleas for listeners to text her show. He falls for her and invents a whole cast of characters, a total of 18, and assigns a second-hand mobile to each. The station's fortunes change dramatically as a result of all the messages they receive from these individuals, not having a clue that they are fictitious. Marc and Nicky, whose ambition has driven her from executive bed to bed, finally make out - but his texts have been so convincing she's fallen for one of his characters! Nicky then discovers Marc's deception, and flees. Mortified, Marc is shocked to find how she has been deceiving him all along. Finally he is rescued by one of her broadcasting colleagues. They fall in love, marry, settle down. . . and Nicky, meanwhile, lands the job of her dreams.

Cleveland Bolton:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library in order to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's internal or real their interest. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this You Send Me can make you truly feel more interested to read.
