The Agreements of the People, the Levellers, and the Constitutional Crisis of the English Revolution

The Agreements of the People, the Levellers, and the Constitutional Crisis of the English Revolution

The Agreements of the People were a series of written constitutions proposed variously by Levellers, soldiers and citizens for the settlement of the nation at the height of the English Revolution. The essays in this book explore the various Agreements in the context of the constitutional crisis that engulfed England in the late 1640s and 1650s.
