Life After the Cross David N. Duval

The author's prayer is that this study will give readers cause to think seriously about their Christian lives, lives which may be lacking in vitality and purpose. Through the study of this book and related scriptures, readers will find, with great joy and relief, that power and energy is available to cause their walk with the Lord to become not only exciting but more meaningful and fruitful as they familiarize themselves with the work of the Holy Spirit and begin to align themselves with God's will and purpose.
