'Incredibly tantalizing' – Love Reading Romance

The second Faedrah Austiere walked into his life off the canvas, everything in Rhys McEleod's world stopped making sense. Not only does her story sound like a Grimm's fairy tale, evidently he's been cast as the villain. If that isn't enough, the mirror inside that old, beat up armoire at her uncle's condo is supposedly a doorway to another world. Ever since the pathway opened, something inside him has seemed...off. If what his muse says is true, they are headed for an epic showdown, but he isn't about to let her go. Nothing is more important than Faedrah's protection, even if her parents refuse to accept him.

Though certain their fates are bound by more than the golden key Princess Faedrah wears around her neck, it is paramount Rhys' true identity be kept secret. Should news of his bloodline ever reach her kingdom, their entire quest to save her people could be lost. Their only hope to prove his loyalty is to steal the map to the dark lord's Crystal Crypt. Yet her a plan endangers her beloved more than the accusations he faces in her kingdom and, to escape evil's grasp, she and Rhys must take a leap of faith beyond her wildest imagination.
